Re: Jones v. Roc-A-Fella Films, Inc. et al., 07 Civ. 3648

Dear Judge Pitman:

We represent Lions Gate Films, Inc. in the above-captioned matter and I write regarding the settlement conference scheduled for February 21, 2008.

As I stated in my voicemail to Mr. Ortiz yesterday, all parties respectfully request an adjournment of the settlement conference. This request is being made in light of an extension of the discovery deadline by Judge Fox earlier this week from February 20 (the day before the mediation) until March 12, 2008. After extending the discovery cutoff deadline, Judge Fox directed counsel to contact Your Honor regarding rescheduling the mediation for a date following the new discovery deadline.

The parties believe that a settlement conference next week would be less productive than one held after discovery has been completed, so that all parties would be better able to assess their positions. Moreover, postponing the settlement conference would permit new counsel for defendants Damon Dash and Roc-A-Fella Films, Inc., who filed a notice of appearance only this week, an opportunity to become fully familiar with the case and their clients' settlement positions.

Pursuant to Your Honor's rules, the parties propose March 28, 2008 and April 3, 2008 as alternative dates. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Mark A. Tamoshunas
